

ITALY – TARANTO

CASTELLO ARAGONESE

---

Taranto is a city located in Puglia, in the south of Italy and Castello Aragonese is a famous monument in the centre of the city.

The castle dates back to 916 when the Byzantines started the construction, but King of Naples Ferdinando di Aragona rebuilt it between 1487 and 1492. It is characteristic of cylindrical tower and interior walkways and it occupies a quadrangular plant with a vast central courtyard.
